

African Drumming / Teambuilding

Workshops mit Nils Kercher

Events mit Führungskräften und Business Teams, als inspirierender stand alone Workshop oder eingebettet in Coaching und Teambuilding-Seminare

Beschreibung des Workshops:

In entspannter und inspirierender Atmosphäre werden die Teilnehmer/innen Schritt für Schritt in die Basis-Rhythmen der Djembe-Trommeln (Westafrika) eingeführt.

Die Teilnahme eines Teams an einem Trommelworkshop ist eine besondere Erfahrung. Das Erleben des Einklangs, der Harmonie und der nonverbalen Kommunikation über ein neues Medium ist häufig eine Schlüsselerfahrung, die auch über die Dauer des Workshops hinausreicht.

Nils Kercher

“A world-class, musical free spirit who has no equal”
(Musikreviews)

“wonderful new album...
great tracks brimming with kora and fantastic vocals”
(BBC / UK)

Für die Teilnahme sind keinerlei musikalische Erfahrungen notwendig. Zwischendurch erfahren die Teilnehmer/innen kurze, interessante Hintergrund-Fakten zum Background der Rhythmen.

Vielen Dank für Ihr Interesse, über eine Zusammenarbeit würde ich mich freuen!

English:

DRUMMING AND THE ART OF LISTENING

with Nils Kercher

This workshop provides an inspiring introduction to West African Djembe rhythms and songs.

Although various rhythms and playing techniques are covered, one central aspect of this approach is to explore a way of playing and listening that is not based on producing or doing, but on an attitude of receiving, of being carried along, of letting things happen.

The field that is created when a group of people share a synchronised flow of rhythm has an energising effect and takes the player into the inner world behind the sounds. This leads to a communication beyond words.

Nils Kercher has years of teaching experience in West African drumming, singing and other instruments. He has developed his unique style of conveying hands-on experiences of the feeling implied in West African music - rather than only focusing on the technical aspects.

Participants of his workshops are often deeply touched and nourished by the music they are able to share with others - even without having had musical training before.
